AUDITIONS

General Info

heARTs Productions is excited to announce the casting call for “Georgia Borders”. An immersive play in two acts written by Donte Miller.

“Georgia Borders,” is a play that questions time and place, regarding an interracial relationship. Explore the complex sociology of this play through the relationship of Anna and Joseph in two different time periods that question how far we have come as well as how far we still must go.

This show will be debuting at The Horn Theater at CSN (College of Southern Nevada) mid-April of 2020. Specific dates and details will be given on a later date if or when casted.

Rehearsals will begin shortly after the auditions to make sure we get a nice head start on productivity. They will be every Tuesday and Wednesday after the initial meet and greet/ read through apart from Wednesdays being added closer to showtime.

Actors will be compensated for their work. Specific details will be given on a later date if or when casted.

We can’t wait to see you at the auditions!

SEE YOU SOON!
